

LRCFT/ LRCCD Memorandum of Understanding
Payment of Part-time and Full-time Faculty for “Advanced Canvas Course Design” Training , Online Counseling Training, and Extension of FT Faculty payment option for Foundations of Canvas Course

Background:

Building on the 15-hour “Foundations of Canvas” training, the Distance Education Coordinators with the support of the AVC of Instruction, have developed an additional optional 30 hour “Advanced Canvas Course Design” training for faculty interested in expanding their expertise in teaching online. Payment for these trainings will be charged to the administrative “bucket.” Agreement:

1. LRCCD and LRCFT agree to extend the MOU that provides full time faculty with the option to receive payment for the 15 hours of Foundations of Canvas training through September 1st, 2023.
2. From June 1, 2022 through September 1st 2023, part-time and full-time faculty can opt to receive monetary compensation via a non-load attributable ESA for the 30 hour Advanced Canvas training.
 - a. Compensation is paid at the Schedule B rate, at the Class II, Step 1 placement upon completion of the training.
 - b. In lieu of monetary compensation, full-time faculty can have the 30 hour training counted as units towards Class advancement or as college service.
 - c. In lieu of monetary compensation, part-time faculty can have the 30 hour training counted as units towards Class advancement.
3. From June 1, 2022 through September 1st 2023, full-time and part-time counseling faculty can opt to receive monetary compensation via a non-load attributable ESA for up to 40 hours of Chancellor’s Office developed training for effective remote/online counseling.
